Club AGM

On Monday 21st November, LMVCC hosted its AGM at Rowley Lane. Much was discussed, including development of the colts, the club's atmosphere and whether Adam Solomons ever had any hair (the jury is out on the matter).

The newsletter would like to offer congratulations to the newly elected committee:

Chairman: Simon Barnett	Communications Officer: Jonny Gould
Vice Chairman: Adam Brand	Media Officer: Steven Allweis
1st XI Captain: Neil Lederman	Fundraising Officer: Alex Haffner
1st XI Vice Captain: Ben Kohler	Welfare Officer: Jonathan Freedman

Also congratulations to Ben Kohler, the 'Most Improved Player', Steven Allweis, who collected both 'Player of the Year' and 'Best Performance' (7-16) and Jon Daniels, who picked up the 'Captain's Award' for being an all-round decent chap. Presumably.

Colts Season Summary

The LMV colts had a mixed season in 2016. Lack of numbers meant we were unable to field an under 15 team, but both the under 11s and 13s produced some outstanding performances.

Another positive was that numbers for the under 11s were very good at winter training. Although the season was hit by the weather we won two of the five games we played, beating Botany Bay and Totteridge, and running a strong Edmonton team very close. Under Jon Feigenbaum's leadership the under 13s improved steadily throughout the season and hope to continue their progress going in to 2017.

The U11 end of season awards went to Dylan Harrod, Jacob Cowan, Jacob Caro and Joseph Levy.

The U13 end of season awards went to Joseph Sweiry, Sam Wolfson and Sam Feigenbaum.
